

shop for insurance with the subsidies we are going to give them, one of the options is not the insurance companies that said in this report they are going to raise rates 111 percent. That is it. That is what the big bogeyman is all about.

Let me show you this chart here to give you a sense for how unfrightening that concept would be. This is the $2.6 trillion of money we spend every year on health care. $2.6 trillion. I ask my colleagues, do you think we can do a little better for $2.6 trillion. We are getting such a great bargain?

Well, let's take a look at this. These boxes here, Medicare, Medicaid, DOD, Veterans Affairs and Department of Health Services, are all single-payer, government-funded, government-administered health care plans. And every day I hear my Republican friends thumping their chest, you gotta protect the VA, you gotta protect Medicare.

Oh, yeah? But you don't want to extend it to the rest of the country. Why is that? What is the big fear? The fear is, they are in a wholly owned subsidiary of this group right here. This is the private insurance companies, the ones that wrote this report that says that rates are going to go up 111 percent.

Now, in this $854 billion, do you know how much of that is profits and overhead? Take a guess. Up to 30 percent. And what some of us are saying is, if you want to find savings in the system, and you don't want to cut into health care, maybe it is a place to start. Can you do maybe with 10 percent? 12 percent? 15 percent? Up to 30 percent. That is savings that we can get right there. But we are trying to get savings using a free market model. Competition. Let's see if there is someone that can do it more efficiently than 30 percent overhead.

We know, for example, Medicare can do it with about 3.5 percent overhead. That is the public option, and my colleagues don't want them to have what they have, which is government-funded health care.

TRIBUTE TO PAUL BURKE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentlewoman from California (Ms. WATSON) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, Hollywood has lost another star with the passing of Paul Burke at the age of 83. Paul Burke was best known for the role he played of Colonel Joe Gallagher in the TV series "Twelve O'Clock High." He was also known for winning two Emmy nominations for his role as Detective Adam Flint on the critically acclaimed New York cop drama "The Naked City."

Paul was born on July 21st, 1926, in New Orleans, son of prizefighter Martin Burke, who became a promoter and nightclub owner. While growing up, Burke's family owned the popular French Quarter nightclub and restaurant Marty Burke's.

After moving to Hollywood as a young man in the late 1940s, Burke studied acting at the Pasadena Playhouse for 2 years. Movie director Lloyd Bacon, a friend of Burke's father, got him his first role, an unaccredited bit part in the 1951 Betty Grable musical "Call Me Mister."

In addition to his wife of 30 years, Burke is survived by his three children from his first marriage, Paula Burke-Lopez, Paul Brian Burke, and Dina Burke-Shawkat; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

The Hollywood community, his family, friends and colleagues will miss him and his contributions to the entertainment industry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. JONES) is recognized for 5 minutes.

(Mr. JONES addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from California (Ms. WOOLSEY) is recognized for 5 minutes.

CONGRATULATING THE NEW YORK YANKEES ON THEIR VICTORY OVER THE MINNESOTA TWINS

(Mr. ELLISON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ELLISON. Mr. Speaker, as the proud Representative who represents the district of the Minnesota Twins, I made an arrangement with my good friend JOE SERRANO about the outcome of the Minnesota Twins-Yankees series, and on October 11th, the New York Yankees defeated my beloved Minnesota Twins in the American League Division Series.

Before I begin, I made the agreement with Representative SERRANO with full expectation that the Twins would prevail. But that didn't happen. So keeping my word, I just want to come to, quote-unquote, sing the praises of the Yankees. And, let me tell you, it is not going to be easy.

Ten times the Yankees and the Twins met this year, and ten times the Yankees were victorious. They were undoubtedly the better ball club this year, and I am sure that in the coming weeks, Joe Girardi will fulfill the promise he made when he picked his uniform number to bring the 27th championship to the Bronx.

Good luck to the Yankees. Congratulations. Your victory is further testimony to why you are the most storied baseball franchise in Major League Baseball.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF SERGEANT MICKEY HUTCHENS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from North Carolina (Ms. FOXX) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, it is with great sadness that I rise to remember the life and service of Sergeant Mickey Hutchens, a Winston-Salem police officer who passed away on Monday surrounded by friends and family at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center.

Sergeant Hutchens is a North Carolina hero. He gave his life protecting the public from a dangerous criminal. Sergeant Hutchens was shot last week while pursuing an armed criminal in Winston-Salem. With his passing, the Winston-Salem community grieves the loss of one of its finest.

He faithfully served on the police force for 27 years, putting his life on the line each day that he showed up for work. We owe him and his family a deep debt of gratitude for the ultimate sacrifice that Sergeant Hutchens made for the public safety.

Police officers and public safety workers like him are the key to safe communities that are often taken for granted. Great tragedies, like Sergeant Hutchens' death, serve to remind us of the heroic work done each day by officers like him.

Sergeant Hutchens was more than just a faithful public servant. He was well-known as a man of impeccable character who was committed to maintaining his integrity at all costs. He was just the type of person you would want wearing the uniform of a police officer.

He lived a life dedicated not to just keeping his community safe, but also to his family and his church. He was a loving and dedicated father of two daughters, Jill and Leah, and a faithful, loving husband to his wife Beth. He was often found serving in his role as a deacon at Forbush Baptist Church.

Sergeant Hutchens left a noble legacy in his community. He lived to serve and protect others. His life is a true inspiration, and I pray that his death reminds us of the bravery and sacrifice of those keeping our streets safe each day.

Today, his family, friends and colleagues are in my thoughts and prayers
